Hallways are pleased to market this 3 bed semi-detached house in the ever popular Banstead Village.
A great opportunity to modernize to your personal taste and create a gorgeous family home.
Benefitting from driveway parking, a garage and manageable rear garden with patio area to enjoy summer evenings with your family.

The lounge, dining room and kitchen are open plan, offering excellent family space.
On the first floor are 2 double bedrooms and a single with a family bathroom. Possible scope for a loft conversion (subject to planning.)
Full of natural light and occupying a sunny position in the cul-de-sac, this will make a lovely home for couples, young families and downsizers.
There are a number of excellent schools in the area for primary and secondary as well as a real community aspect with regular events for residents to come together.
A great selection of cafes, restaurants and independent retailers make this Surrey Village a popular and enjoyable place to live.
A community centre, a cricket club and a play park mean that there are regular activities for all age groups.
